Article WW2 & Hitler

Adolf Hitler was not a Controlled Agent. He was not a Rothschild.

June 6, 2018 adolf hitler, WW2

Foreword: Some ill-informed, and not very well read people, will suggest Hitler was a Controlled Agent, or even that he was jewish or a Rothschild… some type of Controlled Opposition – saying that Adolf Hitler wasn't genuinely fighting against the New World Order and the jewish banking cartels. Honestly, these people have either not done the relevant research or are incapable of critical thinking – and many of these people in the alternative media who say these things are disinfo agents – Controlled Opposition Zionist shills. Below is the main body of an article by an excellent blogger called 'diggerfortruth', there are some additional quotes and links as well:

(And all who are knowledgeable, and well read, know this New World Order / One World Government / Globalization agenda is a jewish agenda, stemming from their doctrines: the Talmud, the Zohar, the Kabbalah… and the Protocols of the Elders of Zion)

If Hitler was an agent for the jews – then why …

…haven't all the key historians/revisionists such as David Irving picked up on this theory in all the collective years of their intense detailed research? David Irving (as just one example) has spent 20 years of his life, at a professional level, detailing Hitler's life and the logistics of WW2. Are we to believe he just happened to overlook this glaringly awkward anomaly? David speaks fluent German, has lived in Germany, and has interviewed heaps of SS officers and relevant people who were around Hitler's war effort. He has looked under every stone, meticulously scrutinizing all the German detailed documentation (being able to understand it/translate it himself). David was a super sharp-minded individual at the time of his research. He was a real threat to the jews and was incarcerated for his incredible efforts and levels of accuracy. No way would a man of this calibre just

Me

Hello. This site started out as a place to share my Art. However, since then I have had many unusual experiences which shifted my Paradigm. I have been diligently researching – I correlate and compare information on many subjects and apply critical thinking.

I am sharing information with people to try and help end some of the unnecessary suffering on this planet – as well as waking people up to new levels.

The vast majority of people who think they are 'awake' are not really, they often still have various more levels to go. I have been there, I know from experience.

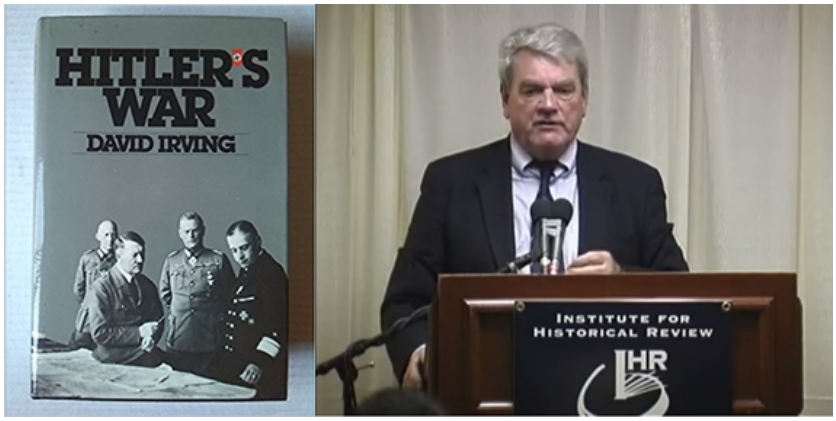
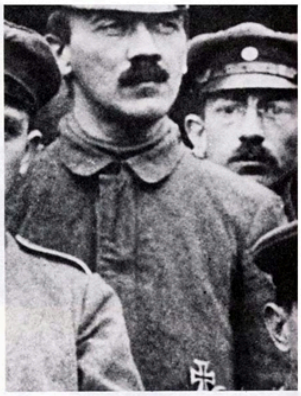
overlooked this fantastic theory? An agent? Come on.



(The brilliant historian David Irving, who sought out primary sources of information, diaries, original documents etc… and never suggested Adolf Hitler was an agent.)

…why did the jews use a humble man from a humble background, and not use one of their own ilk? Hitler came from a working class background, orphaned later on in his childhood, on the streets so to speak, living hand to mouth selling street paintings. Does this smack of one of their boys? They could have used any number of honed agents. As they have with so many other agent-leaders. And please don't suggest he was just bought off. There is zero indication of this. An agent? Come on.

…why was he the only 'agent' who was an authentically brave soldier fighting in the trenches? This man had more courage than all of us put together. Hitler relished the opportunity to fight for his county, and for the spirit of the Germanic/Aryan race. He was injured twice and hospitalised. He loathed cowardliness and those who would not contribute towards the war effort. Just look at reports from someone like Leon Degrelle who spoke of Hitler's remarkable bravery. An agent? Come on.



…why did Hitler abolish usury [debt slavery]? The jew's number one control weapon. Why oh why would the jews allow a leader/agent to show the results of a country without this parasitism, knowing this would be broadcasted all across the world? 'Look, look what can happen when you rid your country of the parasite and the parasite's main tool'. An agent? Come on.

… why was Hitler the only 'agent' who was clean living? He was a teetotaler, vegetarian, who promoted traditional remedies, anti-vivisection, and promoted naturalistic lifestyles for his people. It is well recorded his affinity toward animals. This is a man of compassion, a man of substance who is deeply connected to nature – not an anti-nature sellout. An agent? Come on.

…why would he be slung in prison if he was an agent? And he was [slung in prison]! This has been thoroughly documented by eminent historians. That cannot be disputed. Yes, he was not in for so long considering his plot. But this was because the authorities knew the pressure would come were not as corrupt back then. An agent? Come on.

...why did he radically improve the working man's lifestyle? He improved the working conditions, doubling the wages, reduced/eradicated their debt, instigated and provided an affordable Volkswagen (people's car), built infrastructures to allow the working classes to travel around the country, make foreign cruises affordable/or for free, etc, etc, etc. An agent? Come on.

...were Hitler's/NSDAP's policies carried through to the T. Just look at the congruency they had. Every-single-one of these policies were anti JWO (jew world order). P-l-e-a-s-e don't tell us that this was all part of a bigger plan. That somehow the sneaky jew would allow all these policies to magically work out in order for them to later on smash them down. An agent? Come on.

...why if he was 'their bitch' did he make approximately 20 peace offerings to both France and Britain? It was a well known fact the infatuation Hitler had for Britain and it's empire, in the theme of Aryan enhancement. An agent? Come on.

(Adolf Hitler and Germany dropped leaflets and broadcast speeches in attempts for peace)

...if he was just a puppet of the jews did he have 98% of the [German] people on his side? I know voting today is an utter scam. I also am aware how stupefied and zombified people are today, with pro Trump whatever. I know voting is just more of the jewish dialectic. But back then in the 30s the people were not the zombies they are today. Yes, the populace have always been malleable to an extent, but the German people were raw and far more politically aware back then. The people knew in their hearts and minds that Hitler was oozing authenticity, that he surged with passion for his people, for his race, and for Europe as a whole. And with 98% of the people behind you – miracles can happen. Real transformations happen that way. The main base of funding came from the PEOPLE and not from the bankers as too many people like to propagate. An agent? Come on.

...why, o why, o why is Hitler THE number one vilified person on the planet to this day? Because he was one of their boys? Because he played his role? Because he sold out? Because he was somehow bribed? No. It is not complicated. The very simple reason this man is portrayed as THE most evil man that ever lived is because he was THE man who stood up to the big bad jew. He made an impact like no other man on earth. He set a precedent. Look world, look what can happen to your country if you just stand up to the evil jew. Kick the parasite out and stand back and watch how things organically naturally heal. And that is why the International Jewry absolutely panicked. That is

Two additional quotes:

"So, who wants you to believe this "Hitler was a Jew" or that "Hitler was a Rothschild" rubbish, and why? Whose agenda does it really serve? The Rothschild's and their NWO agenda! Time for the so-called "Truth Movement" to wake up, to turn your lying "gurus" off, do some research on your own, and figure out who really fought the NWO agenda, and who had devised the perfect model that would defeat it, if it had been permitted to continue."

https://justice4germans.wordpress.com/2012/10/13/hitler-was-a-jew-a-rothschild-really

"The rumor that Adolf Hitler was the grandson of a Rothschild seems to have been hatched in the mind of a crypto-Jewish propagandist working in the United States' first unified intelligence agency, the Office of Strategic Services (OSS). Not long after, a former high Nazi official, waiting for his execution, "confessed" to discovering a "Jewish grandfather" in Hitler's background. These fabrications have been thoroughly debunked,"

My Awakening Timeline
August 8, 2018

If Adolf Hitler was an agent then he was the greatest actor the world has ever seen! Is there any evidence of him going to acting school or some sort of specialized training for this mammoth task of deceiving many millions of people for 14 or 15 years? Going through some sort of preparation for the longest and most intense acting role in history? No, of course not – there is no evidence of an acting or preparation school.

We can see the agents today, the fake politicians working for International Jewry, they don't fool many people anymore. They don't inspire love and loyalty from the people. You can see them interact with the public and it is obviously forced and painful to watch.

Hitler had a 99 percent approval rating. He managed to deceive an entire nation? Really? The Germans were possibly the most intelligent people on the planet at that time. You simply cannot fool all those people. It also wasn't just the German people, so many other nationalities joined Germany and the National Socialists in their struggles.

Ernst Zundel, in one of his videos, talks about how the Germans did not turn on the Hitler, even when the war was going very badly and they were suffering their loyalty was there.

Now some Truthers don't like the use of the word Love… they think it can sound a bit woolly. But I have watched much of the National Socialist footage of the time, I have seen Hitler interact with the the German people. I see Love. That man loved those people, there is no doubt in my mind. And the German people loved him. You cannot fake that Love. Sometimes this involves a certain level of consciousness – to see not just the facts, but to also combine the facts with the emotional and psychological Truth of the situation.

Very important article. The propaganda of Hitler's true allegiance had confused me. To know that Hitler could not possibly have been a 'Rothschild agent' as regularly promoted, is crucial to the integrity of Facts over fiction of WWII real history.

Once one knows the facts they can certainly apply Christ's Law in this case:

"BY THEIR FRUITS YE SHALL KNOW THEM!"

In addition to the above 'fruits' Hitler also

1) wiped out the Jewish created pornographic decadence intended to degrade the traditional family values

2) wiped out freemasonry

I appreciate most of the comment, and yes, he did wipe out those elements in Germany – But please no Christianity. Christianity was introduced to Europe to subvert European civilizations by (((Them))). Love everybody, meekness, repenting, forgiving everyone – all this subverting and

There is Nature – Natural Laws – and there is your DNA, ancestry and bloodlines. The most precious thing is your own people… The universe and this planet is about protecting and developing your race… your people… Developing your civilization and eventually advancing out to explore the Cosmos. If Europeans had been left alone, and not subverted in a variety of ways, we would have already done this – although plenty of evidence suggests the National Socialists did achieve this.

The only problem with the anti-Christian sentiment is that it divides us rather than uniting us. If Christianity continues to wane, then it must last until the globalist jewish cabal is dealt with and their religion permanently banned internationally. I'm not a Christian and I sympathize with your take on Christianity, however we can resolve our differences with Christians after the jewish supremacists are dealt with. Otherwise we will not be able to prevent the destruction of our race and the hebraic domination of the world.

And David Irving supported the idea that Hitler was mainly financed by Zionists.

Yes, I can kind of see your point regarding Christianity – to a degree. Adolf Hitler with his tolerance of it seemed to have somewhat of a similar outlook.

Christianity does have a powerful hold over many Europeans. It is a delicate and tricky subject, but my personal view is that it should be highlighted to people how aspects of Christianity can really harm Europeans and White Nations.

This excessive forgiveness, meekness, misguided altruism and 'loving everybody'. It has caused great problems and subverted Europe. A Racially Conscious Christian is perhaps what we can aim for – the NatSoc German Christians became much more Racially Conscious and protective of their people.

I agree we should not try to not let it divide us and find common ground, but again, Christians and Non-Christians need to have some understanding of the problems that aspects of the religion cause.

the altruistic side of things and more on preserving the nation and race. I'm not sure of what you think of Nietzsche, his writings were an among Hitler's influences back when he was discovering himself.

"Christianity gave Eros poison to drink; he did not die of it, certainly, but degenerated to Vice."— Friedrich Nietzsche, Beyond Good and Evil.

"The best thing is to let Christianity die a natural death. A slow death is something comforting about it. The dogma of Christianity gets worn away by the advances of science. Religion will have to make more and more concessions. Gradually the myths crumble…. When understanding of the universe has become widespread… the Christian doctrine will be convicted of absurdity." – Adolf Hitler (Source: Hitler's Table Talk, page 48).

Thanks for the quotations.

I only know the basics of Nietzsche, not enough to have an opinion.

The quote from Hitler's table talks is particularly relevant for this website and for me. As I have had other-dimensional / metaphysical otherworldly experiences in the night (a few were contact experiences) – as well as recall of living on another planet… on another planet with other humans I might add – white folk… but the animals there are not that same as here, and there is advanced tech. I have discussed this elsewhere on my website. When I started having these experiences years ago… well, it blew any notion of religion out of the water.

YouTube does not censor “Hitler was a Rothschild” videos. That is another reason why the theory is bogus. I had a video taken down for “Hate speech” it was a 3 minute video about how Adolf Hitler returned the holy lance to the Vatican, yet they allow videos basically saying “Jews holocausted themselves, & manipulated a world war, to increase their influence” How is that not “hate speech” by their standards?

Hi nefer,

Rise from nowhere? You need to do some research. I will quote an extract for another of my articles:

"The DAP (The German Workers Party) started out very small and then grew bit by bit, after a year or so they renamed themselves The NSDAP (The National Socialist Germans Workers Party) – after which they continued to slowly grow – through speeches, through leafleting, and marching in solidarity. Out of these early years a talented honorable leader emerged, who the people backed and championed… Adolf Hitler. The National Socialists were continuously attacked by their government and especially by Communists… spat at, missiles thrown at them, kicked, punched, shot at, killed, slandered – but they kept on marching peacefully in unity and solidarity, and they kept speaking out. A movement from the people that grew – it was a reaction to the corruption, poverty, degeneracy and disarray in their Nation and the suffering of the German people."

The NSDAP received some contributions here and there, like all parties do, but The National Socialists transformed their country with excellent economic policies and by getting rid of the Jewish Bankers from their country. When you get rid of Usury and Debt Slavery — rid yourself of these bankers parasiting from your country, then your Nation can thrive and turn around very quickly – see my article on Usury.

I also recommend you read the book: Hitler's Revolution, by Richard Tedor.

And this whole Thule Society rhetoric is there to distract and confuse. I have read revisionist books that use first hand German sources of information. Adolf Hitler was not interested in secret societies… he shut down all the freemasonic lodges and secret societies connected to them.

He was interested in science and advanced technology though… technology that would benefit the German people. They had the greatest scientists and engineers in Germany, and now that the bankers had been expelled they could finance these works – they made so many inventions. Unfortunately because war was brought upon them many of them eventually had to be weapons and defence based technologies.

You did not answer to how Germany managed to develop so rapidly after it was completely broke. Who financed them and why Switzerland was never invaded? The Bank of International settlements, now known as the Central Bank of the Central Banks was then known as The Hitler's Bank.

There is a lot information out there on the German Economic Miracle, if you really want to find the Truth. There are other articles on this website that address it, such as my articles on Usury and National Socialism as an Antidote… There are also various links on this site to videos on this subject.

The NSDAP was self financed through the 1920s and early 30s via membership dues, speaking fees and literature sales. This was proven by professor Henry Ashby Turner in his book "German Big Business and the Rise of Hitler". He had access to historic documents from both National Socialist campaign offices and also big businesses archives. He proved beyond any doubt that big business cartels and international finance did NOT finance Hitler, instead the National Socialists were a grassroots phenomenon with huge backing from the working class who were happy to donate. I highly recommend you read this book as it puts Anthony Sutton to shame. That being said, Heinrich Brunnings statement about the "Zionist bankers funding Hitler" is laughable. Why couldn't he be bothered to even specify which banks? He gives no names! and why couldn't he name who this supposed leader of Zionism funding Hitler was? It's so ambiguous as to render his statement worthless. Even if he did manage to clarify the aforementioned, he would still need to provide hard evidence to back up his case such as receipts or telegram decrypts showing the money transfer, which of course Brunning (like all the others who claim Hitler was financed) does not do. If David Irving is such a great researcher then he should have uncovered solid evidence to back up Heinrich Brunnings stupid letter, but he found nothing, and neither did professor Turner who spent the 1980s combing through historic financial records looking for it. Heinrich Brunning was a political opponent of Hitler and he was also awake to the Jewish question, so in typical fashion of those who are awake to the JQ but against Hitler for whatever reason (in this case political rivals) they just make up some crap about Hitler being in the pocket of the Jews, with zero evidence. I have no idea why Irving would take a statement void of all evidence and read it like it's a fact.

If Hitler really was that good then why was he such good friends with both the British and the Dutch Rothschild controlled satanic royal family's? Why was it that people like the Rothschild's and the Rockefeller's funded both sides of the war? Henry Ford even provided the military vehicles for Hitler? And why did the satanic cult not just assassinate him like so many others have been? Look up Prince Bernhard of the Netherlands, he was the one who created the infamous Bilderberg group and co-created the world wildlife fund (which was nothing about saving wildlife) with Prince Philip, HE WAS A MEMBER OF THE NAZI SS!

Hello William,

The problem with people like you, my friend, (I will assume you are just misinformed and not trying to be subversive) is that you do not seem to realise that Jewry control all of the media and the central banks – and that they also create and seed controlled opposition to incessantly tell lies, misinform and misdirect. Before and during WW2 they were putting out incessant lies and propaganda, and they never stopped to this day (International Jewry declared a Holy War on Germany in 1933, by the way). And perhaps you buy into these lies because you don't seem to

You have clearly not taken the time to really look at revisionist history and watch all the alternative documentaries. You are spreading the lies and misdirection that Jewry want you to believe.

'the satanic cult' – what? You mean Jewry... International Jewry. Jewry run things. And there were assassination plots. But what Jewry did do was to mobilise most of the world superpowers to try and totally destroy Germany based on lies and propaganda.

The mere fact that you are using the word 'Nazi' shows you have not completed the relevant research. There is really no such thing as a 'Nazi'. It is just a slur against National Socialist Germans created by a Jewish man a long time ago. It really means country bumpkin or simpleton. They were National Socialists and did not refer to themselves as 'Nazis'.

I suggest you read and watch the work from the people below:

I can absolutely understand your argument and do think you have done an incredible amount of research. I may have referred to the force that controls the world as the 'satanic cult' I also mentioned that it was Rothschild controlled; the Rothschild's are Zionists and also it is a satanic cult whatever you want to call it. You mention me calling Prince Bernhard a member of the Nazi SS thats all that I can call him but you can if you want to translate that to National Socialist Party. He is a Zionist, he was the founder of the Bilderberg group which is absolutely Zionist controlled. Anyway at Prince Bernhard wedding he demanded that the top 'Nazi' song was sung. Bernhard was a 'Nazi' and he is a very bad man.

Then you have the young Queen Elizabeth and her sister doing the 'Nazi' solute, Link to video:
https://youtu.be/OB0YAVF-eOI

The British royal family are most certainly Zionists and evil.

And why did Henry Ford supply the cars for Hitler? Henry Ford was an evil satanic Zionist?

Why did Hitler invert the original symbol of the swastika which was a spiritual symbol? Why would there be a need to invert it (thats what satanists do)???

People say Hitler was a vegan: which as you well know is the Zionists agenda for the population???

However contrary to that people say Hitler loved his dog? If he was evil why would he love his dog? or was that propaganda on the side of Hitler.

I am completely open to all sides and If I did believe that Hitler was good I would be posting it immediately on my website.
I am not a shill just because I don't automatically agree with everything I read.

Hi William

My friend, I did not call you a shill. I clearly said I will assume you are just ill informed and that you are not a subversive. Many of the things you were saying are things the subversives say to misdirect and muddy the waters. Lets look at you claims:

The Dutch Prince Bernhard being a member of the NSDAP in 1933, when he was student, is of no relevance. Seriously, so what. When he was a student he was briefly a member of the NSDAP – students like to fit in and belong to groups, and the NSDAP was very popular then. I cannot fathom why you think this is so relevant. People at different times of their lives will often belong to different political parties. A great many people in Germany were members of the NSDAP at some point. Apparently in 1937 – yes all the way back in 1937 – 'horst wessel' – a German song of the National Socialist era – was said to have been played at his wedding. No proof of this, but again, if it did occur, so what if it was. There is no context given as to why this song was apparently played.

There is a suggestion that he was in then SS Cavalry Corps in 1934 on a few websites. Even if, lets say for arguments sake, that he was briefly in the SS Cavalry Corps, it would have been very briefly – as he left Germany in 1935 and resigned his citizenship!

"The official biography says he left in 1935, on completing his law degree, and that he had joined only to evade Nazi tests imposed on students. He then worked in Paris for the chemical cartel IG Farben. He met Hitler once, to resign his German citizenship. The Fuhrer was the only European leader who did not send a wedding gift."
https://www.theguardian.com/news/2004/dec/03/guardianobituaries.monarchy

This Dutch prince even fought for the allies against the Germans! And was held up as a war hero for his efforts against them.

How can he have been actively a member of the SS when he was fighting for Holland against the German in 1940 – and when left Germany in 1935 renouncing his citizenship?

Apparently he was both a captain in the Dutch navy, and a colonel in the Dutch army.

"As the Nazis invaded Holland in 1940, the young prince consort, then aged 28, organised a group of palace guards that engaged in combat with German forces."

As "Wing Commander Gibbs" – an honorary rank he held in the RAF – the prince later flew Allied bombing raids over occupied Europe before returning in 1944 as a Dutch war hero."

"On 25 June 1940, three days after France fell to the German war machine, Bernhard spoke on the Overseas Service of the BBC. He called Hitler a German tyrant and expressed his confidence that Britain would defeat the Third Reich."

Yes, he really sounded like a National Socialist! That was sarcasm by the way.

Though he may have been a member of the party as student in 1933/4 ever since then he denied it, he fought against the NS Germans, openly spoke out against them and even publicly called Hitler a tyrant!

And on his death bed he even said:

"In one of the last interviews he gave before his death in 2004, he said: "I can swear this with my hand on the Bible: I was never a Nazi."

A National Socialist would never in a million years say this. Bernard was not a 'Nazi' (National Socialist).

This point of yours about the Prince is totally irrelevant. My friend, you need to really look into topics more carefully and with a more critical eye.

And you should really stop saying 'Nazi', you are displaying that you have not completed the relevant research. There were no Nazis. There was The NSDAP and they were National Socialists. They did not called themselves 'Nazis'.

Video about Konrad Heiden and the origin of the word – THERE WERE NO 'NAZIS':
https://www.bitchute.com/video/V6VEODgyJPEp/

Do you not know that Henry Ford – at great risk to himself and personal cost – put together some excellent books on International Jewry to inform others? Why would you mention him providing cars… I cannot see your point there at all? Ford would have agreed with Adolf Hitler so there is no reason as to why he would not provide some cars.

And to refer to something in your original comment: Adolf Hitler was not 'such' good friends with the Dutch and British royal families. Adolf Hitler had good relations with people all around the world before Jewry conspired to bring war against him. Leaders and prominent people praised him all the time for being an intelligent articulate man and an excellent leader you can find quotes from them, some of them are in articles on this site. He was not 'such' good friends with those Royals though – you seem to be suggesting he was in cahoots with them. Totally nonsense. All you seem to be doing is reading baseless disinfo from some controlled opposition sites that want to misdirect and muddy the waters. You don't have any depth of knowledge on the subject and no context and understanding of the dynamics of that period.

Hitler was NOT a vegan. Again, you showing that you are expressing opinions on a subject you have not properly researched. In the latter part of his life was vegetarian – he regularly ate eggs and drank milk everyday. This is mentioned various other times on my website and is in other publications. He was a vegetarian due to his love of animals, he was the first leader in the world to ban animal experimentation. Contrary to the lies we are told he was a compassionate man. And he did not force vegetarianism on others – he never told others that they must follow suit – his diet was a personal thing for him. They did not have the information and research into nutrition that we have now – but he was still getting the beneficial animal fat and animal protein from the milk and eggs. Hopefully raw full fat milk.

My friend you are still naive. Jewry own the media – the media is just one incessant subversive tool for them. Those royal family pictures in the press were obvious psyops, as well as misdirection. They can get in the anti-German propaganda and make out the royal family are really Nazis – and Nazis run the world really. In reality – the Royal family have very close Marxist Meghan Markel was planned. Do you really think that Harry did not know that he was going to be photographed wearing a Nazi uniform and the publicity that it would create? Come on man, it was a psyop. And the Newspaper putting out the Queen doing a Nazi salute as a child in an old photograph – with absolutely no context to what was occurring. It was all planned. Jewry totally own the media – nothing is going into mainstream newspapers that they do not approve of.

The term 'satanic cult' is the term used by those who are not fully awake yet – and often those who are trying to deflect from Jewry. If you want to call out the people who run things in the planet – the accurate term is International Jewry.

You clearly have not properly studied the history of the swastika, the swastika was very widespread. In ancient times – some cultures / tribes used what you refer to as an 'inverted' swastika some used the other version… the version the National Socialist used. Both versions were seen as a positive symbol. They Germans did not use an 'inverted' swastika. Again, both types are swastikas and seen as positive. Some tribes used both versions.

And regarding your previous comment again – the Rothschild's and Rockefellers did not fund both sides of the war. This is just another lie to subvert you from the Truth. Hasbara tactics. They absolutely did not back Adolf Hitler and the National Socialists. There are links on this site that show this and talk about the German Economic miracle and how they funded all their projects. Links that are in this comments section. But again you have not taken the time to watch all the documentaries and videos linked on this website site and you have not read the books recommended. If you had you would not be saying all the things you are saying.

So again… Like I said in the last comment to you, you have not completed the relevant research. When you have taken the time to do so you will see the idea that Adolf Hitler was a controlled agent is so illogical and absurd. And you will see how much Jewry and their controlled agents want you to believe he was – as they put out so many baseless lies about him.

I am definitely going to investigate the issue a lot more. I do think you have a very good point! I have read reports though that Hitler was a zionist? I will read the rest of the articles you have and do further research. And I do think its interesting that Albert Pike a 33rd degree freemason said that the second world war will be used to destroy "Nazism" why would someone like that say that if it was not in the freemasonic satanic zionists interests?

I will do more research into it.
Thanks

The story that Adolf Hitler was a controled zionist puppet can only fall into the theory about zionists using fear and suffering to feed their demons. Or maybe the ww2 was used to kill off a bunch of people, which is really the plan – depopulate...

Hi M

Thanks.

I am not entirely sure I understand what you are saying with regards Adolf Hitler.

The Adolf Hitler 'Zionist Agent' rhetoric has been created as they want Truth seekers to dismiss him as one of the (((them))) and to not pursue what he was telling the Germans, and the world. So that people do not seek the Truth of National Socialism and see its value – as well as understand who our controllers and manipulators are. It is also so that people do not unite behind his teachings and words. They do not want Europeans and White people to have an inspirational hero who explains how to run and create an abundant and united nation.

You are correct that there are some more unseen levels to all this (metaphysical), but the main reason for WW2 was that they could not allow Germany and the National Socialists to continue – as their success would spread rapidly around the world, and Jewry and the Freemasons would be massively exposed.

From what I have seen the depopulation plan came into being later. I don't think WW2 was for that. It was to destroy the German people – because, as a nation they had been woken up and educated by Adolf Hitler and the other National Socialists. The Georgia Guidestones were built in 1979, by the way – which is interesting.

Best regards.

I see what you are saying, but consider the people who still can't believe this. They think ALL wars are made for depopulation/instilling fear/feeding the devil... etc..
I also believe the same as you, but it is tempting to get into these various theories about world wars..

This "Hitler was a Rothschild agent" is indeed pretty ridiculous. And it's kind of moot too – because let's say he was indeed a Rothschild heir, an illegitimate child or whatever. Then apparently he was a big fat trojan horse! (On the soul level) His actions and behaviour speak for themselves and they were clearly against International Jewry/Banking. And that is what counts, doesn't it!

Also – aside from his Aryan spiritual/ethical appearance/behaviour Hitler has very germanic physical features! So how can that be, funny that.?
–> a very straight nose (not crooked in the slightest)

–> very thin lips (instead of big blubber lips)
–> a relatively straight head
–> a relatively straight forehead (instead of the severe sloping)
–> relatively fine eyebrows (not "indrawn")
–> he had blue eyes! (funny how rumor wants to tell us they were brown)
–> had a decent mid-height (with 5'7" (or even 5'9" as some sources suggest?) he was not short – but also not really tall – but funny how rumor always wants to tell us that he was a short man…)
–> he wasn't circumsised
(ok ok, I'm kidding, I can't know this 😉 – but his self-worth (tied in with the German people) and confidence and general demeanor points to a "whole man" (funny how rumor wants to tell us he had a short penis, only one testicle, was gay, yadda yadda….funny then that a lot of women were attracted to him! (And he had affairs with some of them – and of course he got together with Eva Braun))
–> he has straight hair instead of curly hair
–> his hair was black…Oh wait!! That's it! Yep, Hitler definitely was jewish and a Rothschild!!

Cheers,

Hitler invaded the USSR as he had no choice but to pre-empt Operation Thunder Storm, Stalin's pending attack to take Europe on 10 July 1941.
Stalins Plan for an invasion of whole Western Europe(on July 10, 1941.): "Operation Thunderstorm". It can be found in the so-called "Osobaya Papka", a file which contains about 100,000 Top Secret documents. In this file it is document Nr.103202/06. The paper is signed by Marshal Semyon Timoshenko and the chief of the General Staff at that time Merezkov. It is dated 18 September 1940, three months before the German "Operation Barbarossa" was signed. After Georgy Zhukov became chief of the general staff in February 1941, the plan was called MP 41 (Mobilisatsyonni Plan 41). Bunich points to the Russian military archives, where it can be found (ZAMO, f. 15A, op.2154, d.4,l. 199-287). This document contains information about the Soviet military power in June 1941: 300 divisions, 8 million soldiers, 27,500 tanks,

In the months prior to America's formal entry into war (December 1941), Atlantic naval vessels of the ostensibly neutral United States were already at war against German naval forces. (See Mr. Roosevelt's Navy: The Private War of the U.S. Atlantic Fleet, 1939-1942, by Patrick Abbazia [Annapolis: Naval Institute Press, 1975]). And two days after the "Barbarossa" strike, Roosevelt announced US aid to Soviet Russia in its war for survival against the Axis. Thus, at the outbreak of the "Barbarossa" attack, Hitler wrote in a letter to Mussolini: "At this point it makes no difference whether America officially enters the war or not, it is already supporting our enemies in full measure with mass deliveries of war materials."
http://www.ihr.org/jhr/v17/v17n4p30_Michaels.html

German industry was not geared to full-scale war. In fact, Germany did not begin in earnest to put its economy on war footing until early 1942, two years after the Soviet Union. But whereas Soviet military and arms production reached a crescendo in the summer of 1941, Germany's did not peak until 1944 — three years too late.

http://www.ihr.org/jhr/v18/v18n3p40_Michaels.html

Hitler's Speech 11Dec 1941″-Already in 1940 it became increasingly clear from month to month that the plans of the men in the Kremlin were aimed at the domination, and thus the destruction, of all of Europe. I have already told the nation of the build-up of Soviet Russian military power in the East during a period when Germany had only a few divisions in the provinces bordering Soviet Russia. Only a blind person could fail to see that a military build-up of unique world-historical dimensions was being carried out. And this was not in order to protect something that was being threatened, but rather only to attack that which seemed incapable of defense …
"When I became aware of the possibility of a threat to the east of the Reich in 1940 through [secret] reports from the British House of Commons and by observations of Soviet Russian troop movements on our frontiers, I immediately ordered the formation of many new armored, motorized and infantry divisions …
"We realized very clearly that under no circumstances could we allow the enemy the opportunity to strike first into our rear. Nevertheless, the decision in this case was a very difficult one …
"A truly impressive amount of authentic material is now available that confirms that a Soviet Russian attack was intended. We are also sure about when this attack was to take place. In view of this danger, the extent of which we are perhaps only now truly aware, I can only thank the Lord God that He enlightened me in time, and has given me the strength to do what must be done. Millions of German soldiers may thank Him for their lives, and all of Europe for its existence.
"I may say this today: If the wave of more than 20,000 tanks, hundreds of divisions, tens of thousands of artillery pieces, along with more than 10,000 airplanes, had not been kept from being set into motion against the Reich, Europe would have been lost …"
http://www.ihr.org/jhr/v18/v18n3p40_Michaels.html

Yet, as Suvorov explains, when the Germans struck on the morning of June 22, 1941, they attacked with a total of 3,350 tanks, while the Soviet defenders had a total of 24,000 tanks — that is, Stalin had seven times more tanks than Hitler, or 21 times more tanks than would have been considered sufficient for an adequate defense. Moreover, Suvorov stresses, the Soviet tanks were superior in all technical respects, including firepower, range, and armor plating.As it was, Soviet development of heavy tank production had already begun in the early 1930s. For example, as early as 1933 the Soviets were already turning out in series production, and distributing to their forces, the T-35 model, a 45-ton heavy tank with three cannons, six machine guns, and 30-mm armor plating. By contrast, the Germans began development and production of a comparable 45-ton tank only after the war had begun in mid-1941.By 1939 the Soviets had already added three heavy tank models to their inventory. Moreover, the Soviets designed their tanks with wider tracks, and to operate with diesel engines (which were less flammable than those using conventional carburetor mix fuels). Furthermore, Soviet tanks rear and the drive in the forward area.

http://www.ihr.org/jhr/v17/v17n4p30_Michaels.html

The Soviet armies of the First Strategic Echelon were deployed in mid-1941 to strike against Europe. Another seven armies in the rear were making their way to the frontier in preparation for the massive Soviet offensive.The Soviet 9th Army was concentrated not on the German border, but on the frontier with Romania. A 9th Army strike at Romania would quickly seize Germany's most important source of oil. Two Soviet mountain armies were set to help cut off Germany's oil "jugular" and prevent the movement of German forces into Romania. Deployment sites of the "first wave" Soviet airborne corps. Another five airborne corps were secretly being organized deep inside the Soviet Union.

Inside the USSR, an intensive armaments production program was under way. During 1938, it had increased by 39 percent, compared to 13 percent in civil industry. Emphasis was placed on armor, development of artillery and aeronautics. In September 1939 the USSR defense committee contracted the construction of nine aircraft production plants, and seven more to manufacture aircraft engines.This was supplemented by the conversion to fabrication of aviation components of a number of consumer goods factories. In 1940, Soviet production of modern combat airplanes increased over 70 percent from the previous year. The ground forces experienced a parallel upgrading of weaponry. Between January 1939 and June 1941, the Red Army received over 7,000 new tanks and 82,000 artillery pieces (including mortars). On June 26, 1940, a law was enacted extending the Soviet workday from seven to eight hours, and to seven days per week. Disciplinary action for tardiness or slothfulness in the factories was imposed on the work force. These are measures normally introduced during wartime. Conscription swelled the ranks of the Red Army. A force numbering 1 million men in the spring of 1938 surpassed 5 million by June 1941. The growth was summarized by the historian Roger Reese: "There were 198 rifle divisions in 1941, compared to fewer than 30 in 1927; 31 motorized rifle divisions in 1941 and none in 1927; 61 tank divisions in 1941 and none as late as 1939."

Six months before Pearl Harbor, lacking a declaration of war and without the knowledge of Congress or the American people, the Commander-in-Chief [Pres. Roosevelt] gave the Atlantic Fleet approval to change from defensive to offensive operations ... The New York Daily News said it all with a black headline: "SHOOT, FDR TELLS NAVY."

It can be found in the so-called “Osobaya Papka”, a file which contains about 100,000 Top Secret documents. In this file it is document Nr.103202/06. The paper is signed by Marshal Semyon Timoshenko and the chief of the General Staff at that time Merezkov. It is dated 18 September 1940, three months before the German “Operation Barbarossa” was signed. After Georgy Zhukov became chief of the general staff in February 1941, the plan was called MP 41 (Mobilisatsyonni Plan 41). Bunich points to the Russian military archives, where it can be found (ZAMO, f. 15A, op.2154, d.4,l. 199-287). This document contains information about the Soviet military power in June 1941: 300 divisions, 8 million soldiers, 27,500 tanks, 32,628 airplanes.

In the months prior to America’s formal entry into war (December 1941), Atlantic naval vessels of the ostensibly neutral United States were already at war against German naval forces. (See Mr. Roosevelt’s Navy: The Private War of the U.S. Atlantic Fleet, 1939-1942, by Patrick Abbazia [Annapolis: Naval Institute Press, 1975]). And two days after the “Barbarossa” strike, Roosevelt announced US aid to Soviet Russia in its war for survival against the Axis. Thus, at the outbreak of the “Barbarossa” attack, Hitler wrote in a letter to Mussolini: “At this point it makes no difference whether America officially enters the war or not, it is already supporting our enemies in full measure with mass deliveries of war materials.”

German industry was not geared to full-scale war. In fact, Germany did not begin in earnest to put its economy on war footing until early 1942, two years after the Soviet Union. But whereas Soviet military and arms production reached a crescendo in the summer of 1941, Germany’s did not peak until 1944 — three years too late.

Hitler’s Speech 11Dec 1941″-Already in 1940 it became increasingly clear from month to month that the plans of the men in the Kremlin were aimed at the domination, and thus the destruction, of all of Europe. I have already told the nation of the build-up of Soviet Russian military power in the East during a period when Germany had only a few divisions in the provinces bordering Soviet Russia. Only a blind person could fail to see that a military build-up of unique world-historical dimensions was being carried out. And this was not in order to protect something that was being threatened, but rather only to attack that which seemed incapable of defense …
“When I became aware of the possibility of a threat to the east of the Reich in 1940 through [secret] reports from the British House of Commons and by observations of Soviet Russian troop movements on our frontiers, I immediately ordered the formation of many new armored, motorized and infantry divisions …
“We realized very clearly that under no circumstances could we allow the enemy the opportunity to strike first into our rear. Nevertheless, the decision in this case was a very difficult one …
“A truly impressive amount of authentic material is now available that confirms that a Soviet Russian attack was intended. We are also sure about when this attack was to take place. In view of this danger, the extent of which we are perhaps only now truly aware, I can only thank the Lord God that He enlightened me in time, and has given me the strength to do what must be done. Millions of German soldiers may thank Him for their lives, and all of Europe for its existence.
“I may say this today: If the wave of more than 20,000 tanks, hundreds of divisions, tens of thousands of artillery pieces, along with more than 10,000 airplanes, had not been kept from being set into motion against the Reich, Europe would have been lost …”

Some questions remain, though…

the British soldiers go.

Why did The British not attack during the “Phoney War” (so called because of it’s phony nature), even though they could have overrun Germany at that time?

Hi Thomas

He did not want to kill the British and wanted an alliance / friendship with the British, who he greatly respected as people. He tried very hard for this – people will know this if they have listened to his speeches and read around the topic.

He also thought that the British would see his act of compassion and generosity – that it would be noticed and reciprocated. He appears to have underestimated who much Jewry controlled the United Kingdom. He didn’t make the right call every time. He was a brilliant man through.

(You can also see how Hess tried so hard for peace by flying to Britain and risking his life)

I have not looked into this ‘phony war’ you mention. I don’t know the rhetoric surrounding it.

You can look at it like this though: You can show SO many actions and events that show Adolf Hitler was not definitely not controlled – thousands of reasons. But you can go digging and perhaps find a handful or reasons that might suggest he was not legit – some mistakes or misjudgements he might have made in a long and very complex war. What he achieved tactility was actually quite brilliant – they almost won against tremendous odds.

When people have read all the books I recommend on this site, all the linked documentaries, all the surviving speeches – people will see that it is impossible that he was controlled.

The vast Hasbara networks, and controlled agents, on the internet are very intent on trying to get people to think he was controlled and not a great man.

Another point: Jewry do not create controlled agents to expose Jewry to new audiences – especially on massive scale like Adolf Hitler did. We can see that they immediately attempt to shut down anyone exposing Jewry when they are being exposed to normies. The impact of what he achieved, in bringing their activities to light to many millions of Europeans, is still impacting this planet today.

And Adolf Hitler also exposed and shut down Freemasons in Germany and Austria – and got rid of the usurious Jewish bankers. What more do people want?

Anyway, hope that helped.

I think I understand what you said. I assume English is not your first language, but respect to you for your effort.

Yes, he was incredible – and an inspirational speaker.

I would strongly suggest to you that National Socialism lives on in our Solar System and in the subterranean regions of our planet. Whether he is still with them depends on if he made it to the energetically revitalising hollow centre of our planet, or whether they had developed the life extension rejuvenation technology in time for him.

Best regards.
